It is clarified, that as mentioned in the REOI, consultants may associate to enhance their qualification. The Association may take the form of a Joint Venture and/or a Sub-consultancy only and the EOIs from interested firms should clearly state the nature of association in accordance with the same. As mentioned in the REOI, in the case of a joint venture, all the partners in the joint venture shall be jointly and severally liable for the entire contract, if selected. The following guidance is provided in response to queries on REOI, and for the purpose of shortlisting interested firms for these assignments.
